

To Whom It May Concern,

We recently celebrated our daughter's 13th birthday party with a poolside Luau! She loves horses and, after researching several options in South Carolina, asked her friends not to bring presents but donations to PEARL instead. Thank you for the service you are providing distressed animals. We hope you will be able to use a little extra cash from a small group of tweens!

Thank you!
Ruthie Graham

